DAVIS'S BATTING WINS FOR NEW YORK AMERICANS.

Chesbro Too Much for St. Louis-Detroits Stop Boston's Winning Streak-Champions Take the Chicagos Into Camp, Clevelands Beat Senators.

The first four teams in the American League drew very close together as a result of yester-day's games. Boston's winning spell was broken by Detroit, New York beat St. Louis, Philadelphia won from the Chicagos again, and the Clevelands slugged their way to vic tory over the Washingtons. There is a dif-ference of only one game between Boston and Philadelphia and between St. Louis and Cleveland. Results of yesterday's games: New York, 3; St. Louis, 1. Philadelphia, 7; Chicago, Detroit, 7: Boston, 3. Cleveland, 8; Washington, 6 STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (A. L.) 3; ST. LOUIS (A. L.) 1. Playing the game with more semblance of ystem than has been customary with them I late, the New York Americans beat the St. Louis Browns at American League Park yesterday and made a rather neat job of it. The most energetic person involved on either side was "Lefty" Davis, who made all of the New York runs, the score being 3 to 1. "Lefty" also made three hits for New York, which was half of their total. Likewise he caught five flies and stole a base, so it was "Leity's" busy day. Something of a power behind the busy day. Something of a power behind the throne in New York's scoring was Keeler. With his sacrifice hitting. Willie twice advanced Davis to second base with a deftly placed sacrifice. He was an effective, but not conspicuous cog in the New York machinery. As a matter of fact, Keeler deserved to be more than a silent partner in the day's doings on the bases. His two sacrifices would have been safe bunts but for the heavy fleid and exceeding activity of Catcher Kahoe in fielding the bunts to first base.

Also among the deserving wage earners of the day was pitcher Chesbro. Chesbro pitched a masterly game at all stages, and his services stood his side in good stead, for "Red" Donohue pitched a good game too. One of a pair of foolish errors made by New York was committed by Chesbro when he allowed a slow grounder to roll between his legs, and giving the Browns the only run they made. But in the minds of the onlookers this blunder of the pitcher's was written upon the sands, so excellent was his work at all other points. His control was faultless. O'Connor caught him well and used his head in directing who should take fly balls. Nevertheless there was one mix-up. Burkett raised a fly in the eighth inning and O'Connor's command for Williams to make the catch was loud and explicit but as McFarland came running and yelled, "I got it, "Williams stopped. McFarland's prediction was as faulty as his, grammar. He got it not. Instead he muffed the ball.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES. New York Team Continues Its Victorious Career.

Missouri floods cannot check the New York Nationals. McGraw's terrors moved on the water-logged community yesterday and showed themselves to be far more amphibious than those to the manner born. They beat the moist St. Louis Cardinals with supreme ease. However, the Chicagos have caught their second wind since their knockout by New York, and are after the leaders a-running They won from Boston again yesterday The Pittsburgs met Philadelphia and wor their seventh straight game. NEW YORK (N. L.), 11; ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 2. St. Louis, June 9.—New York defeated St. Louis to-day. Manager Donovan sent Sanders in to twirl, hoping that his name would so terrorize the visitors that they would weaken, but it only took an inning would weaken, but it only took an inning and a half to trim him so effectually that O'Neill was substituted. This made no difference, however, all the home pitchers looking alike to the New Yorks, and they swatted Mike for twelve of the sixteen hits secured. Mathewson opened for the New Yorkers, but became weary at the weak hitting of the Cardina's and withdrew at the end of the sixth, Miller going to the rubber. It was stated by the wise ones that McGraw called Christy out so that he would be in condition to pitch when Donovan sent Dunleavy to the firing line. Two singles and a double, aided by an error, gave New York three runs in the first. A free gift, two singles and a double scored three more in the sixth. In the seventh three singles and four errors netted a quartet of runs, and a two-bagger, an error and a single scored the last run for the visitors in the eighth.

Elberfeld to Be Here To-morrow. President Gordon of the New York American League club had confirmation yesterday of the deal whereby New York gets Shortstor Elberfeld of Detroit in exchange for Long and Courtney. Mr. Gordon said he expected Elberfeld to join the team to-morrow, he being in Tennessee at present. Long will play short for Detroit and Courtney third base. The latter is considered a coming man. Manager Griffith of the New Yorks has been out of town since Sunday on a hunt for talent with which to strengthen his team. He went to Detroit, where he saw President Angus, and, it is expected, will try to work wires in other cities before returning. At a late hour last night it was not known whether Griffith had survived the shock of hearing that his team had won another game. Courtney. Mr. Gordon said he expected

MAJOR DAINGERFIELD WINS. TAKES PARKWAY HANDICAP IN

THE MUD. Highweight Event Goes to Captivator -Knight of the Garter Repeats-Star and Garter a Good Thing-Three Favorites Successful at Gravesend.

Major Daingerfield, the four-year-old son of Handspring—Mon Droit, for whom W. B. Leeds recently paid $25,000, won the Park-way Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, at Gravesend yesterday. The track was still muddy and was just suited to the Major, who, with Odom up, was favorite at 8 to 5, with 5 to 1 quoted against "Pittsburg Phil's" Grand Opera and "Father Bill" Daly's Himself, with 8 to 1 against the Shields entry. Martin took Merry Acrobat, the three-yearold Handspring-Merry Thought colt, who will represent P. J. Dwyer in the Brooklyn Derby, to the front without delay and, with Major Daingerfield in attendance, drew away gradually from the others on the run up the backstretch. Odom turned the Major loose on the far turn and he took a slight lead coming into the stretch, where Merry Acrobat, under a hard drive, pushed the favorite to such an extent that it looked as if the latter was beaten. But Odom went to the whip and as he did so the Major bore in on the Dwyer colt, who had the rail, until it looked as if Martin had to ease up. At the last sixteenth Daingerfield drew away and won, ridden out, by two and a half lengths in 1:49 2-5, the last mile being run in 1:45 1-5.

last sixteenth Daingerfield drew away and won, ridden out, by two and a half lengths in 1:49 2-5, the last mile being run in 1:45 1-5. Merry Acrobat finished too a length and a half before John W. Schorr's Rightful, 15 to 1. Grand Opera could not untrack himself in the going and was badly beaten.

In the first race, a hishweight handicap at about six furlongs, Royal Summons and Orlon were played at 13 to 5 and 14 to 5, respectively. Captivator was backed from 7 to 1 to fours. Miss Dorothy, 7 to 1, made the pace to the turn, where Rice let Captivator down and the Lissak gelding gained an easy victory by three lengths in 1:12 4-5. Miss Dorothy. Cochran up, unished second after a rough journey, but Burns, who had the mount on Royal Summons, lodged a protest of foul against Cochran which the stewards allowed, disqualifying Miss Dorothy and placing Royal Summons, lodged a protest of foul against Cochran which the stewards allowed, disqualifying Miss Dorothy and placing Royal Summons second, with Lord Badge third.

Dark Planet, the favorite in the second race, for platers at a mile and seventy yards, ran as if blindeds with mud. "Father Bill" Daly's Hist cut out the running, but stopped short at the far turn, where Kickshaw, 7 to 2, and Star and Garter, 5 to 1, went to the front for a hot duel down the stretch, the latter getting the decision by a head, with Kickshaw two lengths before Scoffer. The race was run in 150.

Sydney Paget's Grenade, by St. Gatien—Turnoil, was regarded as a "moral" for the third event, for beeten two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. He was a prohibitive favorite at 11 to 20. C. P. Waterhouse's Cascine, 8 to 1, tackled him in the stretch, O'Neil had to go to the whip and in a hot drive Grenade won by a racek, with Cascine six lengths before P. J. Dwyer's Harbor, a bay colt by Handspring—Astrid, who was quoted at 200 to 1. The time was 1:00 4-5.

The form players went to M. Murphy's Baseful, by Mirthful—Bassinette, in the fifth event, for maiden two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs

TURF GOSSIP AT GRAVESEND. E. R. Thomas Will Not Start a Horse in the American Derby. E. R. Thomas decided yesterday that he will not be represented in the American Derby. for which both Yardarm and Onatas are eligible. Onatas, who was purchased by Mr. Thomas from John E. Madden, is not ready for a race, although it was originally intended to send him to Chicago for the big $25,000 race. Yardarm has been such a disappointment to Mr. Thomas that the latter believes that it would be folly to ship the Henry of Navarre colt West.

Herman B. Duryea, the owner of Acefull who ran unsuccessfully in the English Derby, is expected home to-day. Mr. Duryea is the racing partner of Harry Payne Whitney the racing partner of Harry Payne Whitney, and they are the owners of Irish Lad. If Mr. Duryea gives his consent, Irish Lad will be sent to Chicago immediately.

There was a notable absence of big bettors vesterday, Dave Johnson, Jesse Lewisohn, Frank Farrell and "Pittsburg Phil" being among the missing.

C. F. Dwyer, who is ill, was reported to be on the road to recovery yesterday. He sent a $1,000 commission to the track on Northbrook in the last race.

Jack Adler received a letter yesterday from Jockey Henry Spencer, "the Iceman, who is riding in Austria. Spencer says that Fred Taral is having difficulty in getting down to 115 pounds and that Lewis, the American jockey, is scoring many successes. Spencer writes that there is racing four days a week in Austria and that nearly all of the big stake events are decided on Sunday. In the letter, which is dated May 27, Spencer predicted Vandusen's victory in the Derby.

The ring was hard hit on the success of Captivator, Star and Garter and Major Daingerfield. Hackensack was a good thing in the second, but he was nowhere.

Merry Acrobat got a good preparation yesterday for the Brooklyn Derby, to be run on Saturday. There are conflicting rumors as regards the starting of W. C. Whitney's Matchless in this event.

Charlie Gray, who rode McChesney to victory in the Harlem National Handicap on Saturday, has signed a contract to ride for John A. Drake for the rest of the season. He can make 105 pounds and recently returned from a successful campaign in Austria. Tommy Meade has been riding Drake's horses so far this year with fair success.

"Bud" Meyer, the racing partner of H. R. Schaffer, has had a great run of luck the past two days. Out of fifteen races he has picked one loser and has cleaned up nearly $10,000 on conservative wagers. If Bronx had won the fifth race yesterday Meyer would have cashed a heavy bet.

LAWN TENNIS.

Clear weather brought a large attendance for the second day's play in the West Side Lawn Tennis tournament, held on the club's ourts, 116th street and Amsterdam avenue yesterday. On Monday the rain interfered with all but two of the matches. This delay will necessitate speedy work if the events are to be run off by the end of the week. In order will keep the courts busy both morning and afternoon.

The matches contested vesterday were the scratch and handicap men's singles. The former was of special interest, bringing to-The result leaves in the following: Holcomb Ward, Orange L. T. C.; J. Parmly Paret, New York T. C.; C. C. Kelley, R. D. Little, West Side T. C.: F. G. Anderson, Kings County T. C.: O. M. Bostwick and L. E. Mahan, West Side T. C.

The Ward-Sands match brought out the usual steady net play of the former, who won rather easily in straight sets. The battle between A. J. Shaw and C. C. Kelley proved an even one until the former sprained his ankle, toward the end of the second set. Had it not been for this mishap the old Yaleexpert might have carried off the honors. Paret easily defeated R. M. Beckley in straight sets. The other winners, Little, Anderson, Bost-wick and Mahan also passed the opening ound without the loss of a set. Little deserved considerable credit for his Little deserved considerable credit for his easy win as he had just finished a hard battle with Anderson in the handicap singles. In the latter event several matches were concluded before dark. To-morrow it is expected to start play in the ladies' singles and mixed doubles. If possible, both will be run off by Saturday. The results follow:

Men's Singles-First round—G. A. L. Dionne. West Side T. C., defeated J. Steinecke, H. G. T. C., 6-2, 6-0; H. F. Allen, Belmont C. C., defeated G. H. Stodel, Yonkers C. defeated H. Avery, 6-2, 6-2.

There was no play in the Crescent Athletic Club tourney yesterday at Bay Ridge. The committee was expecting to finish all events early next week, but from present progress it will be considerably later before the finals are reached. If possible some matches will be run off this afternoon. Thus far C. C. Putnam, -½ 30, and W. H. Holden, +½ 15, have won the most matches in class A. In class B, H. A. Smith, -15; W. J. Brown, scratch; C. P. Cadley, scratch, P. S. Krecher, -½; 15, and K. S. Hogg are undefeated.

The Sands-Smythe match in the semifinals of the New York Club Tennis tournament was postponed yesterday owing to the fact that Sands was engaged at the West Side grounds. One set of this event was played on Monday, going to Sands, 6-3.

Exciting matches witnessed by a large played on Monday, going to Sands, 6—3.

Exciting matches witnessed by a large throng of spectators marked the closing rounds of the annual championship lawn tennis tournament of the Adelphi Academy, which were held yesterday on the Adelphi Field courts, Brooklyn. The final between Robert Cassamajor and John H. French was keenly contested. French won, but it took thirty-four games befor he was returned the winner. Final Championship Round-John H. French defeated Robert Cassamajor, 6-2, 9-7, 6-4.

ATLANTIC YACHTS RACE. Annual Regatta Satled Under Difficulties -Much Fog and Little Wind.

After waiting for hours for the fog to lift and the customary formula of sticking jackknives into the mainmast, the Atlantic Yacht Club made friends with the god of the winds to the extent that their annual regatta was finished shortly after's o'clock last night.

Few of the boats that have made their debut this season were in the various classes, but those that appeared were handicapped by the light airs. The others that appeared were kept out of the race on account of the fog. This same condition kept many of the rog. This same condition kept many of the yachts along the Sound from participating in the regatta, which is usually one of the most popular of the year.

The wind coming in from the east made the course a close reach to the first mark, an anchored buoy to the northward of Fort Hamilton, a beat to Craven's Shoal buoy and a broad reach home. The smaller boats covered this course twice and the schooners and larger sloops covered it three times.

At 2:05:00 the schooner class went away, the Kiwassa with the gun, and the Estelle trying to luff out under her weather. Five minutes later the signal was made and the Ondawa managed to capture the windward position, beating the Nymph.

The smaller class crossed in the following order at five-minute intervals: 2:15:00, Bagheera: 2:20:00, Corona, and Vagabond; 2:25:00, Pickaninny and Scalawag.

The winners in the various classes were the Kiwassa, the Ondawa, the Umbrina, the Bagheera, the Corona and the Pickaninny.

George Cole Outpoints Charley McKeever PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 9.—George Cole had the better of Charlie McKeever at the Southern A. C. to-night. The bout went the limit, but nearly ended in the first round when McKeever twice took the count. Toward the close of the round Cole ripped in his righ the close of the round Cole ripped in his right and left hands on Charles's jaw. Charles went down for the count. In the sixth round Cole was all over McKeever and had him in bad shape when the gong sounded.

Billy Willis stopped Young Martin in four rounds. Billy Manning had so much on Ed Hall that the referee stopped the bout in the fourth round. Kid Jackson outpointed Fred Martin and Billy Williams quit to Kid Butt in four rounds.
